CI Reporting

Your ultimate tool for streamlined data analysis

Are you tired of spending hours compiling and analyzing data from multiple sources? Say goodbye to tedious manual reporting processes and hello to efficiency with CI Reporting.

CI Reporting is a revolutionary Relativity workspace application designed to simplify your data analysis tasks. With just a few clicks, you can run multiple saved searches, reports, and scripts, amalgamating all the information into a single, comprehensive report.

TIME-SAVING AUTOMATION

CI Reporting saves you valuable time by automating the process of generating reports. No more manual data compilation – just select your inputs and let CI Reporting handle the rest.

ENHANCED PRODUCTIVITY

Say goodbye to production QC headaches. CI Reporting allows for standardized and automated processing and production QC reports.

EFFORTLESS REVIEW MONITORING

Keep track of your review progress effortlessly. CI Reporting provides end-of-day metrics, allowing you to track the number of documents reviewed and the breakdown of coding from the review set.

CUSTOMIZED REPORTING

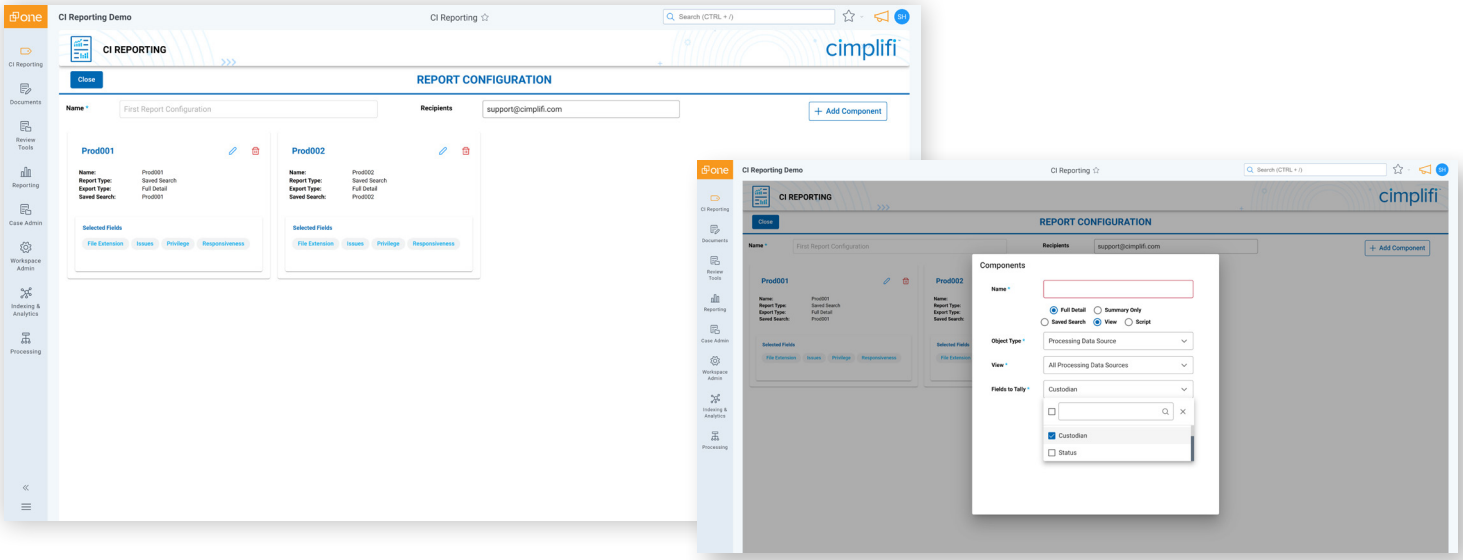

Tailor reports to your specific needs. Choose from pre-built reports or create custom reports on the fly, selecting the scope and type of report you require.

COMPREHENSIVE DATA ANALYSIS

Gain deep insights into your data set with CI Reporting. Track progress, identify trends, and make informed decisions with detailed reports covering various parameters such as responsiveness, privilege hits, file types, and more.

How It Works

ACCESS CI REPORTING

Simply navigate to the CI Reporting tab within your Relativity workspace to access a list of previously run reports or generate a new report.

RUN REPORTS

CI Reporting will execute a series of saved searches and scripts based on your selected inputs, consolidating the results into a single Excel file.

SELECT INPUTS

Choose the scope and type of report you want to build. CI Reporting allows you to select from a range of parameters to customize your report according to your requirements.

EXPORT & ANALYZE

Export the generated report to Excel for further analysis. The report includes a summary page referencing all backup data, providing you with a comprehensive overview of your findings.

Unlock the Power of Data Analysis with CI Reporting Today!

Don’t let manual reporting processes slow you down. Upgrade to CI Reporting and revolutionize the way you analyze and report data. Experience efficiency, accuracy, and productivity like never before. Try CI Reporting now and take your data analysis capabilities to new heights.
